A Page in History
m to Expand ndation is partnering l craftsman to add more to the room since books inuously being added to ry. Your contributions help ry continue to grow!
efs and Goals
ote history, family, gement, faith, love, and ships of Black people e youth in the Shenandoah books reflecting Black ture and experience Expand students' literary analysis and presentation skills a book y go from pre-k dulthood.
FOUNDATION
Stop by and see for yourself!
Call 540.221.6964 to schedule a visit and see the space.
1320 Ohio St., Suite D
Waynesboro, Virginia
Want to contribute?
Donations are tax deductible and go towards adding books to the library.
Through the donation link, you can specify you would like to give to the book drive.
Donate Here

A Page in History
Progress and Reactions
First opening .....200 books Current estimate .....1,500 books Goal .....5,000 books
All books are written by Black authors about Black life.
Many children were shocked at the amount of books reflecting their own culture and had a hard time choosing a book because of all the options to pick from.
Everyone can find a book at the library. They go from pre-k through adulthood.
Room to Expand
The foundation is partnering with local craftsman to add m shelves to the room since h are continuously being a the library. Your contr
the library continu
Belief
Prom
enco rel